

A group of people, likely at a restaurant or bar, are shown from the chest up. They are all wearing light blue button-down shirts. Their hands are raised in the air, palms facing forward, in a celebratory gesture. The background is dark, and there are some items on the table, including a bottle of wine and a glass. The overall atmosphere is festive and social.

The Szpilman Award is founded in 2003 by the artist group Szpilman.

Permanent Members of the Szpilman Award Jury are Bernd Euler, Dirk Fleischmann, Leonard Kahlcke, Patrick Koch, Tina Kohlmann, and Tina Schott.

Members of the Jury meet once a year for three or four days (usually at the end of October/beginning of November, usually in Germany). Members of the Jury do not draw a salary.
